Good Afternoon

Just a quick update on Casey Planning Scheme Amendment C258.

Late Submission

Council has received a late submission to C258. This submission has been referred to Planning Panels Victoria, and will formally be considered under delegation, or by Council at the time of adopting the amendment.

The submission does not request changes to the amendment, and seeks to reinforce aspects of the exhibited amendment. This submission has been published online to ensure all submitters are able to view it prior to panel. It is listed under project documents on the below link, and is currently the last document.

Planning Panel

By now all submitters should have received advice from Planning Panels Victoria (PPV). This was sent via email on 25 March. If you haven't received this, please respond, and I will put you in touch with Planning Panels Victoria. The correspondence includes a request to be heard form includes a due date for return to PPV.

COVID-19 has necessitated a number of changes to the way PPV operate. As you will be aware from the PPV correspondence, the Directions Hearing will now be held on the papers, and the main hearing is anticipated to be held by video conference. This is likely to be a new experience for most parties involved. The correspondence from PPV includes anticipated panel dates.

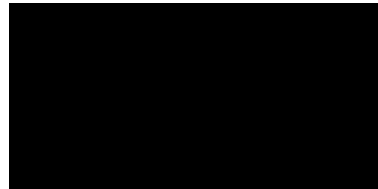

Should you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via return email, or on [REDACTED]

Kind Regards
