Dear Ms Selvaraj,

Thank you for sending this on to us for review.

Mr Montebello has reviewed the proposed additional declaration and I can confirm that we are content with it, subject to the change (new text) illustrated in red below:

In giving my evidence, I confirm that I will not communicate with my client or its legal team or any party associated with my client in any way or any third party (including any person from my office) as to the content of my evidence or my responses to questions from when I am called to provide this evidence in chief until I have been formally been excused by the Panel Chair.

Please feel free to contact me if there are any further questions in relation to this.

Kind regards,

Briana Eastaugh | Special Counsel

Subject: Casey C258 - additional declaration for witnesses for Mr Montebello and Ms Brennan's review

Good morning Ms Eastaugh, Mr Borton and Mr Smyth

As outlined at the directions hearing the Panel indicated it would prepare an additional declaration for witnesses to sign relating to their conduct at remote hearings, and that it would provide this to Mr Montebello and Ms Brennan for review prior to it being implemented.

Please find attached the Panels proposed Direction for Mr Montebello and Ms Brennan's review. Could you please pass this onto Mr Montebello and Ms Brennan for me.

Can you please provide me with any comments on the attached declaration no later than 2.00pm on Wednesday 20 May 2020.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Cheers

Amy
