More details on the content proposed by Amendment C284case and where the content has been derived from can be found in Attachment 1 to this Explanatory Report.

Strategic assessment of the amendment

Why is the amendment required?

The Amendment is required to implement the Casey Planning Scheme Review 2018, the Casey Planning Scheme Review 2022, and the reform brought by Amendment VC148, by updating the Casey Planning Scheme. The Amendment:

- Fulfills Casey City Council's obligation as the Planning Authority under the Planning and Environment Act 1987 to undertake a regular review of its planning scheme. It does this by:
 - Implementing recommendations of the 2018 Planning Scheme Review Audit Report (City of Casey, 2018)
 - Implementing recommendations of the 2022 Planning Scheme Review report (City of Casey, 2022)
 - Making updates to local content to implement Council documents and strategies that have been adopted or prepared since the Planning Scheme Review in 2018
 - Removing obsolete background documents and replacing superseded background documents with current versions.
- Restructures and redrafts all local policy content to align with Victorian Government required changes to the format and drafting of planning schemes introduced through Amendment VC148 in 2018.
- Corrects minor errors and anomalies in local schedules to improve the implementation of the planning scheme within its existing strategic and statutory frameworks.

Implementation of the Casey Planning Scheme Reviews 2018 and 2022

Casey City Council, as the Planning Authority, is required under Section 12B of the Planning and Environment Act 1987 to undertake regular reviews of its planning scheme to ensure it provides the necessary framework to achieve Council's land use vision for the municipality.

The Casey Planning Scheme Review Audit Report (December 2018) made 20 recommendations, ranging from improvement of internal processes to streamline decision making processes; requirements for further strategic projects to meet organisational priorities and State Government requirements; to the identification of opportunities for further strategic work to reform key policy within the Scheme.

At the 18 December 2018 Ordinary Council Meeting, the 2018 Audit Report was adopted and consequently submitted to the Minister for Planning, and Council resolved to commence a program of updates to the local content (i.e. policy and provisions) of the Scheme generally in accordance with the recommendations of the 2018 Audit Report.

One of the objectives of the Planning Scheme amendment is to update local policy content to align with the Council Plan 2017-21, and key Council documents and strategies that have been adopted or prepared since the last Planning Scheme Review.

The 2022 Review acknowledged the progress of initiatives completed or underway since the 2018 review and assessed the alignment of the Planning Scheme with the Council Plan 2021 – 2025 and Vision. The Review also identified strategic gaps in the Scheme to be addressed over time as part of Council's future strategic planning work program. This Amendment was acknowledged as an important milestone in reforming the Scheme and ensuring that it remains contemporary.

At the 13 December 2022 Council Meeting, the Casey Planning Scheme Review 2022 report was endorsed and subsequently submitted to the Minister for Planning.

Amendment VC148

Amendment VC148 was approved in July 2018 as part of the Victorian Government's Smart Planning Program to simplify and modernise Victoria's planning policy and rules to make planning schemes more efficient, accessible and transparent. The amendment implemented changes to the Victoria Planning Provisions (VPP) and planning schemes to clarify, simplify and improve their structure, function and operation, and to remove unnecessary regulation. More specifically, Amendment VC148:

- Introduced a new PPF
- Enabled the future introduction of an MPS
- Introduced a new state, regional and local integrated policy structure
- Modified the schedules to some existing zones, overlays and provisions to accommodate additional local content
- Created new operational provisions

Amendment C284case seeks to implement these reforms into the Casey Planning Scheme. The amendment proposes a new structure for the planning scheme with the PPF containing state, regional and local policy in a thematically integrated form. The PPF will be complemented by the MPS which is a succinct expression of the overarching strategic policy directions of the Planning Authority (i.e. Casey City Council). The MPS will replace the existing Municipal Strategic Statement.

All new and updated local content for the planning scheme proposed by Amendment C284case has been drafted in accordance with the principles set out in the Practitioner's Guide to Victorian Planning Schemes (Version 1.5) to ensure it is:

- Within the scope of the Planning and Environment Act 1987 and strategically justified
- Clear in its application, proportional to the intended planning outcome and consistent with relevant parent provisions, practice notes, advisory notes and Ministerial Directions issued by the Minister for Planning
- Drafted to be clear and unambiguous, incorporating administrative, style and formatting changes based on the Ministerial Direction on The Form and Content of Planning Schemes

Correction to Errors / Anomalies

Errors and anomalies in respective local schedules to overlays are required to be updated as follows:

Clause 42.01(Environmental Significance Overlay)

Schedules 7 and 8 to Clause 42.01 include errors that exempt works within the Tree Protection Zone of a tree from requiring a permit. Also, the schedules include 2014 as the relevant year to the Casey Significant Tree Strategy (incorporating the Significant Tree Register) which inadvertently restricts the non-static list of specimens in the Tree Register from being updated.

Corrections to both Schedules 7 and 8 to Clause 42.01 are therefore required.

Clause 53.01 (Public Open Space Contribution and Subdivision)

The table contained in the Schedule identifies that most areas have a specified open space contribution amount but includes an exemption that states:

'These amounts do not apply to the subdivision of land to create lots for existing dwellings for which the amount is: Not specified.'

The exemption inadvertently removes scheduled rates where subdivision is for existing dwellings. The intent of the Schedule is not to specify exemptions. Any exemptions from public open space requirement specified in the scheme or under section 18(8)(a) of the Subdivision Act 1988 are already addressed under Clauses 53.01-1 and 53.01-2 of the planning scheme respectively. A correction to the anomaly is therefore required, by deleting the exemption from the Schedule to Clause 53.01.

An update to the Fountain Gate-Narre Warren CBD exemptions is also required to ensure consistency with other Activity Centre Zones in Casey.

How does the amendment implement the objectives of planning in Victoria?

The amendment implements the following objectives of planning in Victoria, set out in section 4(1) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987 by providing updated policy direction related to the following themes set out in broadly in the proposed MPS and local schedules and more specifically in the proposed PPF:

The amendment provides for the orderly use and development of the municipality consistent with the above objectives by linking the themes set out in broadly in the MPS and local schedules and more specifically in the PPF.

How does the amendment address any environmental, social and economic effects?

The amendment is expected to have positive environmental, social and economic effects for Victorian business, industry and the community by:

- Improving the clarify and transparency of local policy content in the MPS, PPF and proposed local schedules, which results in greater certainty for users of the system.

- Improving planning outcomes by removing errors, inconsistencies and incompatibility in local policy content in the MPS, PPF and proposed local schedules.

The application of updated and improved local policy content in the MPS, PPF and amended local schedules will provide certainty to the users of the planning system by ensuring land use and development outcomes are consistent with environmental, social and economic land use objectives of planning in the City of Casey and better alignment with Victorian land use policy objectives.

There will be positive environmental impacts from updating policies that protect and enhance biodiversity and natural assets in the municipality, protecting green wedge areas from inappropriate development and encouraging environmentally sustainable development.

There will be positive social impacts by introducing policies that encourage healthy and social urban environments; facilitate vibrant activity centres as the centre of community life; as well as providing clearer guidance on the location of gaming venues.

There will be positive economic impacts from updating policies that encourage a diversified economy, protection of employment land, and support for employment growth.

Does the amendment address relevant bushfire risk?

The amendment is not expected to result in any increase to the risk to life as a priority, property, community infrastructure and the natural environment from bushfire. The amendment proposes to give effect to the strategies to address bushfire risk as part of the new MPS. Addressing bushfire risk is a key land use theme in the municipality and the MPS provides a brief overview and strategic directions based on content previously contained in the LPPF at Clause 21. State policy and provisions relating to Bushfire will still apply and are not proposed to be altered as part of this amendment.

Does the amendment comply with the requirements of any Minister's Direction applicable to the amendment?

The amendment is consistent with the requirements of the Ministerial Direction - The Form and Content of Planning Schemes under section 7(5) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987. The amendment implements changes to the format, structure and content of the planning scheme in direct response to the requirements of this Ministerial Direction.

The Amendment has been prepared in accordance with the strategic considerations set out in the following Ministerial Directions, under section 12 of the Planning and Environment Act 1987:

What impact will the new planning provisions have on the resource and administrative costs of the responsible authority?

The amendment is not expected to impose additional resource or administrative costs on the responsible authority. The amendment will introduce a clearer and more legible policy framework into the scheme that better integrates state, regional and local policy. It will use clearer language, avoid repetition and remove outdated policies. The policies will provide a greater level of certainty about where growth and change will occur in the municipality and improve clarity about how Council will use its discretion when making land use planning decisions. The amendment will streamline planning provisions and processes and will provide a scheme that is easier to navigate and understand for all users.
